Ken & Chris:

I am pleased to FINALLY be able to forward this authorization and attached handbook and guide from the Maine Bureau of Motor Vehicles. Mr.. Boivin's email got caught up in our anti-spam software this week which is why I did not forward it along to you sooner. While I know you hoped to get this approval earlier this fall the election and multiple recounts of House races have kept both the Secretary of State and me (in my capacity as Counsel to the Maine Republican Party) quite busy but I am very pleased that we were able to gain you this authority before the end of the year.

Good luck to you in your efforts in the remaining states. It has been a pleasure representing the National Safety Commission as your Maine counsel. Go Navy!

Dear Mr. Riley,

Attached is the latest version of the Maine Motorist Handbook & Study Guide distributed by the Maine Bureau of Motor Vehicles. This publication is not copyrighted, therefore, it may be used by your client (National Safety Commission) in their Directions 101 program. The material attached is the most recent version of the publication, slated for public distribution after the beginning of the new year.

Best wishes,

Larry Boivin
