Re: Missouri Driver Guide

Dear Mr. Underwood:

It is my pleasure to inform you that Missouri will join the ranks of states to participate in the "Directions 101" publication.

The Missouri Driver Guide will be made available for reprint in your publication to be distributed to Missouri high school students, provided you add the following notice to your publication:

"The Missouri Driver Guide provided herein is accurate as of May 2006, but is subject to being updated and republished by the Missouri Department of Revenue without notice. You should contact the Department of Revenue or your local Contract Office for the most recent copy of the Missouri Driver Guide."

Also, we would ask that you include a picture of our Governor, Matt Blunt, and a letter from him on the importance of safety when operating a motor vehicle.

As you requested, the driver guide information will be provided via a CD. Please contact Maura Browning, the Department's Public Information Officer for the Missouri information. She can be reached at (573) 751-8222 or via email at: maura.browning@dor.mo.gov.

We agree Missouri students should be allowed the opportunity to reap the benefits of "Directions 101." If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Trish Vincent
